NEW APPOINTMENT

THE VOICE OF YOUTH

Richard Stilgoe has been announced as the new chair of Youth Music, the organisation set up in 1999 to promote musical activities among disadvantaged youngsters. He takes over from Gavin Henderson, who will be devoting his time to his role as artistic director of the Dartington International Summer School. Best known to many as the man who used to compose topical musical ditties on Nationwide, as the lyricist behind Lloyd Webber's Starlight Express, and not least the regular anagram guru on tea-time TV favourite Countdown, Stilgoe will bring a high profile to an organisation that has enjoyed stunning success since its foundation in 1999 – its activities have already benefited over 1.5 million children.
