

Evening Standard

24 October 2007

Youth music launched at National Gallery

THE National Gallery will echo to the sounds of jazz, rap, rock and drumming today as Youth Music week kicks off with a series of free events.

Pop star Lil' Chris and vocal quartet All Angels will be at the

LOUISE JURY

---

gallery to launch the nationwide programme which runs until 1 November.

Richard Stilgoe, chairman of the National Lottery-backed

Youth Music foundation, said: "The idea of Youth Music week is that as many young people as possible should participate."

---

FOR MORE INFO ►
www.youthmusic.org.uk